Each Ordinary Course Professional that is a law firm shall agree to make a reasonable effort to comply with the U.S. Trustee's requests for information and additional disclosures set forth in the Guidelines for Reviewing Applications for Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses Filed under 11 U.S.C. § 330 by Attorneys in Larger Chapter 11 Cases, effective as of November 1, 2013 (the "U.S. Trustee Fee Guidelines").

- (h) If an Ordinary Course Professional seeks payment of fees in excess of the Aggregate OCP Fee Limit, such Ordinary Course Professional shall (i) be required to (a) file a separate retention application to be retained as a professional person pursuant to section 327 of the Bankruptcy Code; and (b) apply for compensation for professional services rendered and reimbursement of expenses incurred in connection with these chapter 11 cases in accordance with sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, the U.S. Trustee Fee Guidelines and any and all applicable orders of the Court. The Final Statement shall include the following information for each Ordinary Course Professional: (i) the name of such Ordinary Course Professional; (ii) the aggregate amount paid to the Ordinary Course Professional during the previous ninety (90) days; (iii) the total amount paid post-petition to each Ordinary Course Professional; and (iv) a reasonably detailed description of the services rendered by the Ordinary Course Professional during such period.

The Final Statement shall be served upon the Notice Parties, who shall have twenty (20) days to file an objection with the Court pursuant to section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code (an “Ordinary Course Professional Fee Objection”).

- (k) The Debtors reserve the right to retain additional Ordinary Course Professionals from time to time during the chapter 11 cases by having each such Ordinary Course Professional comply with the OCP Procedures.
- (l) Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, the Notice Parties shall have the right to object to the Debtor’s retention of any Ordinary Course Professional nunc pro tunc to the applicable Retention Date.

4. The Monthly OCP Fee Limit is $25,000 and the Aggregate OCP Fee Limit is $187,500 during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases, each subject to increase by agreement of the Notice Parties or order of the Court.

5. The entry of this Order is without prejudice to the Debtors’ right to request a modification of the OCP Fee Limits or other relief.

6. No Ordinary Course Professional shall be paid any amounts for invoiced fees or expenses until its OCP Declaration and Retention Questionnaire has been properly filed and served and the Objection Deadline has passed without the filing of an objection, or if an objection is timely filed and served, after the parties resolve such objection or the Court enters an order overruling such objection.

7. Any payment to an Ordinary Course Professional authorized by this Order shall be subject to disgorgement in the event it is later determined that any information described in the OCP Declaration or Retention Questionnaire required to be filed pursuant to this Order is false.

8. Notwithstanding anything else herein, nothing in this Order shall prevent the U.S. Trustee or the Official Committee from seeking a determination from the Court requiring an Ordinary Course Professional to file a separate retention application under sections 327(a) or 327(e) of the Bankruptcy Code.

10. Each attorney Ordinary Course Professional who exceeds the OCP Fee Limits shall make a reasonable effort to comply with the U.S. Trustee's requests for information and additional disclosures as set forth in the U.S. Trustee Fee Guidelines.

11. Nothing contained herein is intended to be or shall be construed as (a) an admission as to the validity of any claim against the Debtors; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' or any other appropriate party in interest's right to dispute any claims; or (c) an approval or assumption of any agreement, contract, program, policy or lease under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code.

12. This Order shall not apply to any professional retained by the Debtors pursuant to a separate order of this Court.

13. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, the Debtors shall separately retain any Ordinary Course Professional that becomes materially involved in the administration of these chapter 11 cases, on application to and order of the Court pursuant to section 327 of the Bankruptcy Code. The rights of all parties in interest with respect to any such application are fully preserved.

14. As this Order is only procedural in nature, the U.S. Trustee reserves its rights to object to the retention of any Ordinary Course Professional on any grounds including those Ordinary Course Professionals identified on Exhibit 1 hereto.

15. Notwithstanding anything set forth herein to the contrary, the Official Committee shall have the right to object to the retention of an Ordinary Course Professional or the payment of any fees or expenses to any Ordinary Course Professional at any time on any applicable grounds, including, without limitation, to the extent that (i) the Ordinary Course Professional provided or is providing services outside of the scope of services set forth in the Ordinary Course
